Terms and Conditions - Trinity 2024

In booking any Training Workshops, you agree that:

COMMITMENT: application is not an expression of interest; it is a firm commitment. You will be available for the full duration of the course session(s); if you are not, please do not make a booking. You will not accept any subsequent meeting invitations that fall during the given workshop times.

PRE-WORK / HOMEWORK: if applicable, you will complete any given pre-work and/or homework as described on the workshop web listing, as it constitutes part of the workshop

CANCELLATION: should your circumstances change, and you are not able to attend the full session(s), you will cancel using the Cosy booking system (link in booking confirmation email) giving at least 72-hours' notice, so we can offer the place to someone on the waiting list. Cancellations by email will not be accepted.

ARRIVAL: you will join, or arrive at, the workshop 5 minutes before the advertised start time, to ensure a prompt start.

LATE POLICY: you understand that the online room will be locked / workshop door will be closed 10 minutes after the event start time, and late-comers will not be admitted. This is to preserve the integrity of the workshop for those who are present.

ENGAGEMENT: you will give the session your undivided attention and engagement. You will not be able to do other tasks in parallel. If online, you will ensure that your environment and internet connection allow you participate verbally, and with video cameras on. These are interactive workshops, and it is not appropriate to attend from a silent, or shared, workspace.

ATTENDANCE RECORD: you understand the Register will be taken in the last half-hour of the workshop, and anyone not present in the room at that point will be marked as non-attending (see below)

FEEDBACK: you will contribute feedback afterwards, to help us understand how well the session met its intended aims, and facilitate our continuous improvement

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-ATTENDANCE: you understand that any non-attendance

a) is visible to departments and supervisors/PIs, and

b) may result in any future bookings you've made within the same term being cancelled, and the place(s)
